

The air waves should not be controlled by a very small number. There is too much control of the media already. Citizens deserve solid, accurate reporting; not just 15 seconds about a topic. I do not support the FCC proposed further deregulation of media.